CALL ME MISTER®

GEORGIA COLLEGE CALL ME MISTER APPLICATION

Mentors Instructing Students Toward Effective Role Models

Program information

- It is preferable for applicants for Georgia College's Call Me MISTER program to have already applied and been accepted to GC for Fall 2017. Acceptance into Call Me MISTER is contingent upon prior acceptance into our institution.
- To apply, students must also be pre-Education majors, planning to enroll in either the Early Childhood, Middle Grades, or Special Education programs.
- Participants are largely chosen from historically under-served and underrepresented backgrounds.
- Please complete the following information and return to: Emmanuel Little | Georgia College | College of Education | Kilpatrick Center | CBX 070 | Milledgeville, GA 31061
    - You may also scan & email the completed application and supplementary materials to emmanuel.little@gcsu.edu.
- Applications will not be considered complete without the required materials at the end of this application.
- The priority deadline for submission is Feb. 1, 2017. However, applications will be accepted until the program fills.

Additional Required Materials

To complete your Call Me MISTER application to Georgia College, please include the following additional items:

- Two professional letters of recommendation from an educator, teacher, counselor principal, pastor or community leader
- A resume listing any extracurricular/organizational involvement, awards or special achievements received in high school
- A 500-word essay that addresses the questions below. The essay should be typed and double-spaced.
  Why do you want to teach and how will you be a benefit to the community through education? Why will you be an asset to Call Me MISTER? How do you envision yourself and how will you make a difference in the lives of others? What do you foresee as the biggest challenges for you as a future teacher and how will you embrace them?

Following the submission of the items above, an interview will be scheduled with prospective program participants to ascertain their potential for teaching and their motivations for participation in the program, as well as to provide an opportunity for clarification of any information submitted through the application process.
