GC JOURNEYS NEWS

OCTOBER 2019

GC Journeys & MURACE Department Mini-Grant

Due Nov. 15

Winners Announced: Dec 1

GC Journeys and MURACE have teamed up to offer an Undergraduate Department Mini-Grant. Professional Development funds will be available for winning departments in order to support undergraduate research & creative endeavors as a transformative experience. Faculty must agree to mentor at least one undergraduate project, and students must present their work at the GC Student Research Conference, the Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference, or a disciplinary conference.

For more info: Click here

Dr. Alby presents with George Kuh

Dr. Cynthia Alby was a co-presenter in the session "Expanding Definitions of Evidence for Equity" at the National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA), where she discussed GC Journeys. Dr. Alby presented along side Dr. Claire Jacobson (National Association of System Heads) and George Kuh, author of Student Success in College. Kuh, a Chancellor's Professor at Indiana University, is known for his work in identifying high impact practices, and as the founder of NILOA.

GC JOURNEYS INFO SESSION

FIND OUT HOW YOU CAN BE INVOLVED!

- RSVP Here
- November 4 at 3:00-3:30 PM
- January 22nd, 12:15-12:45
- February 13th, 12:30-1:00
- March 25th, 12:30-1:00
- April 16th, 3:30-4:00

We will be hosting brief (half-hour) information sessions discussing the GC Journeys Initiative

GC JOURNEYS WORKSHOP

Sign up for faculty workshops on:

- Using transformative experiences in the classroom
- Essential skills

Sign up here

MURACE (Mentored Undergraduate Research & Creative Endeavors) Update

- 21 Georgia College student presentations were accepted for the Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference, hosted by University of North Georgia on November 1st-2nd. Congrats to the students and their mentors

- Summer Research Students presented at the MURACE Fall Symposium

- The Research Round-Up was a great event, helping connect faculty and students to learn more about research opportunities available on campus. A big thanks to all the faculty who attended.

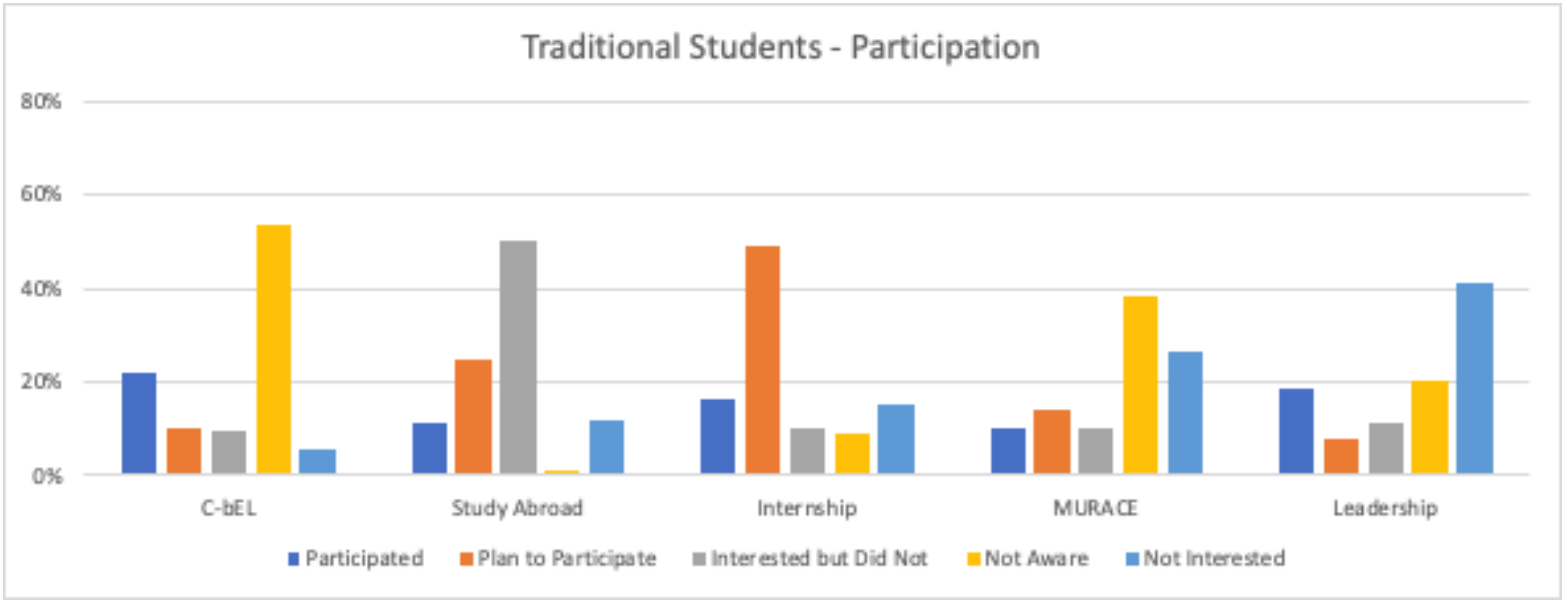
Students discussing research opportunities with faculty at the Research Roundup (Oct 9th)

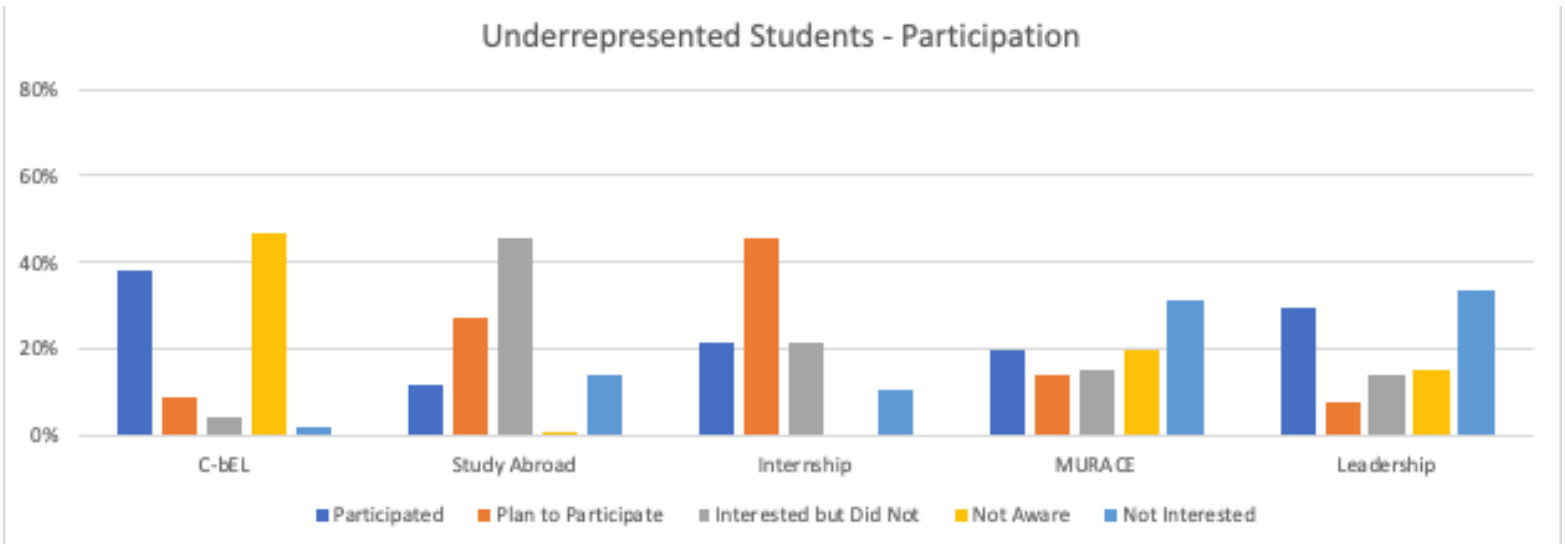
Students attending the MURACE Undergraduate Research Circle

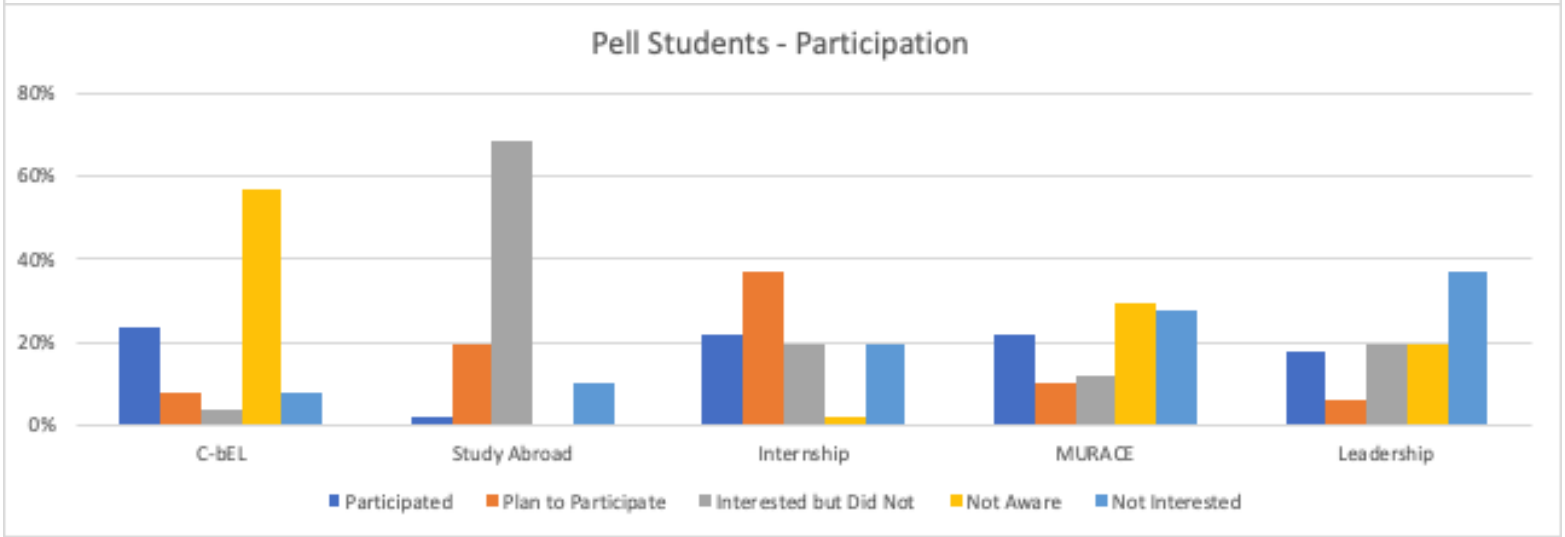
Resources

- GC Journeys & MURACE Department Mini-Grant
- Sign up for Transformative Experience & Essential Skills Workshops!
- RSVP for a GC Journeys Info Session
- Register for the next Design for Transformative Learning class

- Contact us:
- Cynthia Alby- Director of GC Journeys
- Jordan Cofer-Associate Provost for Transformative Learning Experiences

GC Journeys Fall 2018 NASH Survey*






The following surveys come from the National Association of System Heads based on Fall 2018 data. The participation in GC Journeys is based on a survey with 453 students responding. This is students self-reporting whether they participated in GC Journeys, desegregated by Traditional, Underrepresented, and Pell-Eligible students.