Regulations:

Along with a completed copy of this form, submit the following

Required Documents:

- A description of the project you would like to work on in the Flannery O'Connor Collection in the library at Georgia College & State University. Max. length 2 pages.
- Resume or Academic Transcripts
- Budget for trip to the Flannery O'Connor Collection. Max. length 1 page.
- Letter of recommendation, preferably from a teacher

Fellowship applications are due 1 Aug. each year for work in the Collection during the following calendar year. In other words, applications are due by 1 Aug. 2006 for work anytime in 2007.

Applicants need not have scheduled work in the Flannery O'Connor Collection prior to submitting an application for an O'Connor Collection Fellowship. Fellowship payments are made after the conclusion of the proposed work in the O'Connor Collection.

The Senior Fellowship is generally awarded to a teacher or independent scholar who has completed a terminal graduate degree program.

The Junior Fellowship is generally awarded to a student in a graduate degree program. The Flannery O'Connor Review reserves the right not to award either or both fellowships.
