SUMMER CONFERENCE ASSISTANT POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Summer Conference Assistant (SCA) position is a very important aspect of our summer camps and conferences program. SCAs are charged with ensuring that every camper/conference attendee has a positive and memorable experience.

SCAs are responsible for the safety, well-being, and comfort of the campers/conference attendees while they are in our halls. By virtue of the services we provide, we are a highly visible component of the summer camps/conferences program, so it is important that the best image of Georgia College and the Department of University Housing is presented.

The SCA position begins in late May with SCA training and ends in early August.

The compensation package includes a room waiver, and a stipend of $1650 for the summer. The stipend will be paid bi-weekly, over four paychecks.

The duties of a SCA vary, but for the most part SCA's are responsible for ensuring clean rooms and common areas, check in and checkout of camps/conferences, maintaining an evening desk in halls where visitors are residing, and remaining in buildings overnight when camps/conference attendees are present. The SCA staff will also be responsible for summer school duty coverage on a rotating schedule.

The SCA position can be time consuming during different periods over the summer. Because of this, students taking minimal course loads and those not working outside jobs will be given first consideration. Completing and turning in an application does not guarantee an interview. After careful consideration, the Conference Coordinators will contact applicants and arrange interviews.

If you have any questions, please contact University Housing.

Application is due by February 12th. Return to the University Housing office located on the terrace level of Sanford Hall.
