EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

Milledgeville, Ga., 29th Sept. 1862

Dear Governor.

~~Sir: In reply to your letter of the I am instructed by the Governor to say, that~~

I enclose & send to you, by Express, as directed by Mrs. Brown, 8 $500. State bonds, as she handed them to me. As no Express leaves here till to-morrow night, & as Capt. Guerard is here & is going to Macon to-night, I get him to take the package & deliver to express there, so they may reach Atlanta on Wednesday evening, as you desired.

I also put in the package copies of some important letters, thinking you may wish to take early action on some of them. There is not much important correspondence here except what I have heretofore sent & now send you.

All well at the mansion.

His Excellency, Yours as ever.

Joseph E. Brown,

Atlanta, Ga
