What we are looking for

Help others, gain writing and communication skills, and be ready for great professional development opportunities...

The GC Writing Center is currently hiring undergraduate students to serve as part-time peer consultants. Writing Center Peer Tutors engage in conversation with their peers about goals and revision strategies for a piece of writing. Applicants should possess both strong writing and interpersonal skills, but no teaching or tutoring experience is required, as tutors will be mentored throughout the year. We encourage those who enjoy collaboration and value working and learning from others to apply. The Writing Center values the experiences of students from all disciplinary and language backgrounds. Pay is $10/hr.

Interested? Email the Writing Center Director, Dr. Bracewell, to learn more and to apply: joy.bracewell@gcsu.edu

Peer Consultants

Help others, gain communication and data entry skills, and build your background in Microsoft Word and Excel...

The GC Writing Center is currently hiring undergraduate students to serve as part-time desk assistants! Desk Assistants serve as the bridge between student and tutor, and are the first-person students interact with when entering the Writing Center! They manage appointments, send out email reminders, maintain organization, and aid in the transitions into, and out of appointments. Applicants should possess strong interpersonal skills and a strong work ethic, but no experience is required, as training is provided upon hiring. We encourage those who enjoy interacting with students and value organization and communication skills to apply! The Writing Center values the experiences of students from all disciplinary and language backgrounds. Pay is $8/hr.
