Transitioning to a new position and adjusting to a new lifestyle can become a challenge during what is likely your first professional career. Research confirms between 50% and 60% of new professionals leave the field before their fifth year (Renn & Hodges, 2007). Networking at this workshop will assist you through the steps on how to feel confident and remain encouraged throughout your journey by providing advice, tips and tricks on survival.

Freedom of Expression in the state of Georgia

Mary Ashley McCollough, J.D., Legal Counsel, USG Office of Legal Affairs

Navigating Impact: Tools for Accountability When We Cause Harm (part I)

Dr. Jennifer Graham, Interim Chief Diversity Officer and Director of the GC Women's Center
Ashley Copeland, Director of the GC Give Center

Lunch The MAX – please use ticket provided at registration.

** A primary purpose of today is to network; please sit with people you do not know from institutions other than your own. ****

1:30 p.m. Navigating Impact: Tools for Accountability When We Cause Harm (part II)

LARA/A – Listen, Affirm, Reflect, Add, Ask
