

Women's Faculty Fellows Leadership Program Fellow

Dr. Nancy B. Mizelle is Chair of the Department of Professional Learning and Innovation and Professor of Middle Grades Education. She earned her Ed.D. in Elementary Education with a focus in Middle Grades Education from the University of Georgia. She has more than 30 years teaching experience, including the last 22 years at GC. Dr. Mizelle's research focuses on young adolescents' motivation and literacy learning and middle level teacher preparation. She reviews for RMLE Online, Middle Grades Research Journal and Middle School Journal as well as the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP)/Association for Middle Level Education (AMLE) Specialized Professional Association (SPA) and Georgia's Schools to Watch program. Her leadership has included Program Coordinator for the Middle Grades Program, two interim Chair roles, Chair of the Department of Early Childhood and Middle Grades Education and Department Chair for Professional Learning and Innovation. Currently, she also is serving as Co-principal Investigator for the $5.3 million, five-year Georgia Residency for Educating Amazing Teachers (GREAT) grant, a federally funded Teacher Quality Partnership grant, awarded the Southern Regional Education Board working in collaboration with Georgia College, to create a residency-based teacher preparation program.