Welcome and Graduate School Updates:

- Double Bobcats (Shannon):
 - Access DB website through Graduate School website
 - Currently one pathway from MMI to MMIS
 - Double Bobcats proposal (must go through college governance first), then submit through curriculum approval process link (on Provost's website)
- Graduate School (Parris)
 - March 29th GC Research Day
 - Works-in-progress proposals are ok to submit
 - Proposal submission portal is on Graduate School webpage
 - If admissions applications checklist needs to change (e.g., changing requirements), let Kay know. Programs should make sure the information on their websites align to the requirements.

Old Business: None

New Business:

- Action Items:
 - MAT Music Education: Program Course Changes; recommend accepting either EDFS 5211 or MUED 6800 to fulfill the MAT music education research requirement; include MUSC 6100 as an approved elective in the MAT music education degree program.
 - MAT Music Education: Eliminate GACE
 - Scott moved to approve the two proposals. Josie seconded the motion. Proposals were approved unanimously.

- Information Items:

- College of Health Sciences

- Concentration in Coaching is coming later this semester

Update from Each College:

- College of Arts & Sciences
 - Biology applications are up (more students than they have graduate assistantships for. Let Al Mead know if you have unfilled assistantships)
- College of Business & Technology
- College of Education:
 - Graduate enrollment looks good this semester.
 - Employer Education Initiative (through the School of Continuing and Professional Studies) led to conversations and recruitment meetings with school districts. The yield was 30+ students newly enrolled for spring semester.
 - For some of our summer start MAT programs, we gave students the option of starting classes this spring semester.
 - CoE is starting to receive applications for the Ed.D. Program.
- College of Health Sciences
 - Starting to look at applications for graduate programs that start in summer

Announcements/Discussion:

- Let Cassie know if we have brochures she would like her to share at upcoming recruitment fairs.
