COLLABORATE. EXPLORE. LEARN BY DOING.

Employers are up to 81% more likely to hire graduates who have participated in experience-based learning activities, such as undergraduate research, internships, study abroad, leadership programs and community-engaged learning.

At Georgia College & State University, every student is guaranteed meaningful access to transformative experiences like these — starting in Year One.

Our rigorous undergraduate and graduate programs provide early access to hands-on work, meaningful connections with faculty and staff mentors, and ample opportunities to explore across disciplines. Through these experiences, GCSU students learn to communicate, think critically, solve complex problems and develop other workforce-ready tools.

IT'S DIFFERENT HERE — intentionally so.
