The College of Education recognizes that society is a unique mixture of diverse individuals. Diversity, Equity and Inclusion encompasses issues of gender, race, age, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, ability, color, country of origin and more. The COE values and respects the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion of individuals and seeks to prepare students who will be capable of working effectively with individuals of varying characteristics.

The COE will seek to provide learning experiences, both within and outside of the classroom which will foster understanding and appreciation of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in our candidates and will provide strategies to help candidates work effectively with diverse individuals in professional settings.

- Should the need arise during the year, the Acceptance, Recognition, and Community Committee will appoint appropriate sub-committees.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

The committee will determine operating procedures at the first meeting held at the beginning of the academic year. All committee decisions will be determined through consensus building (unless agreed upon to be determined by a majority vote of the committee). A quorum of members is required for any decisions or vote.

The committee will attempt to schedule meetings during the common meeting time or at a time mutually agreed upon by the members.

Every meeting will begin with the Chair or Vice Chair calling the meeting to order

The Chair or Vice Chair will present the agenda to all members prior to the meeting or at the beginning of the meeting.

Members will review the prior meeting's minutes and follow parliamentary procedure to revise and/or accept the minutes.

Members will discuss each agenda item in order to build consensus or to determine if a vote is necessary based on parliamentary procedure.

The Chair or Vice Chair will adjourn the meeting at the designated time.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended, repealed, or altered in whole or in part, and new Bylaws may be adopted by a majority of committee members entitled to vote at any meeting.

The foregoing Bylaws were duly adopted on October 11, 2024.
