At Georgia College & State University, leadership means more.

Leadership is about forging meaningful connections to our communities and world. It is a perspective, not a position. Good leadership requires us to speak out powerfully and passionately for a given cause and to marshal our resources to a given end. The intensive leadership education we provide at Georgia College & State University helps our students identify what matters to them, how to make positive change in their communities and world, and how to serve as leaders for the public good.

The Georgia College & State University Leadership Academy is an eight-month program for first-year students. Whether you're just beginning your leadership journey or already pursuing your passions, the Leadership Academy will equip you for leadership at GCSU and beyond.

Goals

The Leadership Academy will prepare you to lead at all levels. You will learn to...

1

Lead Yourself.

Leading others and leading organizations always begins with leading ourselves. The Leadership Academy will equip you to clarify your personal values and define your approach to leadership.

2

Lead Others.

In addition to the practical skills you'll acquire, effective leadership requires us to recognize and communicate our personal leadership styles. Through the Leadership Academy, you will learn to inspire a shared vision and empower others.

3

Lead at Georgia College & State University.

Using GCSU and Milledgeville as your laboratory, you will practice, reflect upon, and be mentored in your leadership. The Leadership Academy will get you connected to the community and help you build your professional network.

4

Lead Beyond.

Leadership is needed everywhere. Through the Leadership Academy, you will learn to apply your leadership broadly — to your profession, community, and world.
