

2016 Constitution WEEK

September 16 - 22

Friday, Sept. 16

11 a.m. - 2 p.m.: Constitution Day Festival – Come to Front Campus for music and activities to celebrate the signing of the U.S. Constitution. College and community groups are welcome to set up tables with a Constitution theme – contact matt.roessing@gcsu.edu for details.

Monday, Sept. 19

6 - 6:45 p.m.: Chief Justice Hugh Thompson of the GA Supreme Court will discuss access to justice and expansion of the GA Supreme Court. (A&S Auditorium)

6:45 - 7:30 p.m.: State Rep. Allen Peake will discuss GA medical marijuana law and associated issues of federalism. (A&S Auditorium)

Tuesday, Sept. 20

6 - 8 p.m.: Supreme Court Review – A panel of lawyers, judges, and law professors will discuss the most recent term of the U.S. Supreme Court. Moderated by Matt Roessing of the J. Whitney Bunting College of Business. (A&S Auditorium)

Wednesday, Sept. 21

Noon - 1 p.m.: Times Talk – A discussion of recent GA legislation on Campus Carry and Religious Freedom. (GC Library)

6:30 - 8 p.m.: "God and Guns" – A discussion of recent GA legislation on Campus Carry and Religious Freedom with GA legislators Rep. Stacey Godfrey Evans, Rep. Susan Holmes, and Sen. Josh McKoon. Moderated by Deitrah Taylor of the GC Cultural Center. (A&S Auditorium)

Thursday, Sept. 22

6 - 8 p.m.: Voting Rights – Jason Carter, former GA state Senator and Josh Belinfante, former Chief Legal Advisor to Gov. Perdue, will discuss redistricting, voter identification laws, and access to the polls. Moderated by Jehan El-Jourbagy of the J. Whitney Bunting College of Business. (A&S Auditorium)

Constitution Week is sponsored by the J. Whitney Bunting College of Business, the Department of Government and Sociology, and the American Democracy Project.

All events are open to the public.