GC JOURNEYS NEWS

GC Journeys & MURACE
Department Mini-Grant
Due Nov. 15
Winners Announced: Dec 1
GC Journeys and MURACE have teamed up to offer an Undergraduate Department Mini-Grant. Professional Development funds will be available for winning departments in order to support undergraduate research & creative endeavors as a transformative experience. Faculty must agree to mentor at least one undergraduate project, and students must present their work at the GC Student Research Conference, the Georgia Undergraduate Research Conference, or a disciplinary conference.

Dr. Alby presents with George Kuh
Dr. Cynthia Alby was a co-presenter in the session "Expanding Definitions of Evidence for Equity" at the National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA), where she discussed GC Journeys. Dr. Alby presented along side Dr. Claire Jacobson (National Association of System Heads) and George Kuh, author of Student Success in College. Kuh, a Chancellor's Professor at Indiana University, is known for his work in identifying high impact practices, and as the founder of NILOA.
