Welcome to Andalusia: The Home of Flannery O’Connor! Use this packet during the tour and while exploring the grounds to help you learn more about Flannery’s life here on the farm. If you have any questions, just ask one of our docents!

What is a docent? Here is the definition:

docent
[ˈdɒsənt] noun
a person who leads guided tours especially through a museum or art gallery

Your docent will show you around the museum while telling you about the house and Flannery’s life here.

Docent-led tour

Pay attention to what your docent has to say, and then use the space below to take notes about what you learned. Things to listen for include important dates, funny stories, or anything else that interests you.

___________________________
____________________________
____________________________
____________________________
____________________________
____________________________
____________________________
____________________________
Fill in the Blank

Use what you learn on the tour to fill in the blanks below using the words from the word bank.

Word bank:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sacred Heart Catholic Church</th>
<th>Dr. Bernard Cline</th>
<th>1850s</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>peafowl</td>
<td>Savannah</td>
<td>refrigerator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40</td>
<td>Regina O’Connor</td>
<td>lupus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edward O’Connor</td>
<td>bookcases</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Flannery O’Connor was born on March 25, 1925 to Edward and Regina O’Connor in ____________, Georgia. The three of them lived there before moving to Atlanta and then to Milledgeville.
2. Flannery’s uncle _______________ purchased Andalusia in 1931, and Flannery was able to visit the farm often as a young girl.
3. After becoming very sick on her way to see her family for Christmas in 1950, Flannery was diagnosed with __________, the same disease that killed her father.
4. ___________ managed the farm from the office in the center of the house.
5. Flannery purchased the _________________ after selling the film rights to one of her short stories, “The Life You Save May Be Your Own.”
6. The parlor and bedroom on the end of the house were an addition made by Flannery’s uncle Louis Cline in the late 1950s. Flannery especially loved the large __________ in this room which she brought to Andalusia from her cousin’s house in Savannah.
7. The dining room is the first room on the tour that belongs to the oldest part of the house which was built during the ________.
8. On the table in the entryway are photos of Flannery’s uncle, Bernard, and her father, ____________.
9. Flannery’s day started with a trip into town for mass at ________________ before going back home to work on her writing.
10. Flannery kept many __________ as pets while she lived here. Her flock eventually grew to around _______ of them.
Scavenger Hunt
Spot these items around the house during the tour, and write the room where you found them in the space below each photo.

“Calves for Sale” sign
Found: __________________

Ice crusher
Found: __________________

Refrigerator
Found: __________________

Mayonnaise jar
Found: __________________

Bookcase with photo
Found: __________________

Chickens
Found: __________________

Photograph
Found: __________________

Crutches
Found: __________________

Record player
Found: __________________
I Spy
Find objects that fit each description below, and write them in the blanks.

I spy...
Something more than 50 years old:__________________________________________
Something that looks new:__________________________________________________
Something colorful:_________________________________________________________
Something taller than you:____________________________________________________
Something bigger than a car:__________________________________________________
Something tiny:_____________________________________________________________
Something rough:___________________________________________________________
Something soft:_____________________________________________________________
Something bright:___________________________________________________________
Something dark:____________________________________________________________

What was your favorite thing about Andalusia?
On the lines below, write a few sentences about something you enjoyed seeing or learning about inside the house or around the farm.
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
Coloring Page

Color the three images, and then draw your own picture of something you saw at Andalusia in the fourth space.
Word search

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PEAFOWL</th>
<th>EDWARD</th>
<th>FLANNERY</th>
<th>REGINA</th>
<th>OCONNOR</th>
<th>MILLEDGEVILLE</th>
<th>ANDALUSIA</th>
<th>WISE BLOOD</th>
<th>COLONNADE</th>
<th>HILL HOUSE</th>
<th>TOBLER CREEK</th>
<th>NAIL HOUSE</th>
<th>ASTOR</th>
<th>MRS SHORTLEY</th>
<th>LUPUS</th>
<th>AUTHOR</th>
<th>WRITING</th>
<th>STORIES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

---

Thank you for visiting Andalusia: The Home of Flannery O’Connor. We hope you enjoyed it!