Community Representatives are a group of student leaders in each residence hall that advocate for and represent all residents of the hall community. The Community Representatives work with the Resident Student Association (RSA) to plan and execute a variety of programs for the residents of their hall and sit on RSA committees (when available).

Why should I be a Community Rep?
- Leadership skill development
- Great resume builder
- Get to meet people in the hall
- Helps you gain the skills to become an RSA Executive Board Member
- Helps you gain the skills to become a Community Advisor
- It’s fun!

How many representatives are there per hall/building?
- There may be up to five representatives per hall/building. However, there is only one vote per area for voting matters.

Leadership retreat details
- Community Representatives get to attend a FREE leadership retreat
- If you are the voting representative the retreat is mandatory
- ONE DAY fun-filled training and teambuilding Saturday, August 22
- Breakfast snacks and lunch will be provided
- You will learn what it takes to be a community representative, meet new friends, and learn some leadership skills
