

Georgia's Old Governor's Mansion, located in Milledgeville, was home to eight Georgia governors and their families from 1839-1868. Milledgeville was the capital of Georgia before Atlanta and during the Civil War. It was the founding building for Georgia Normal & Industrial College (currently known as Georgia College) in 1889. In the early 2000s, the Mansion underwent a complete restoration to restore it to its original splendor. It is open for public tours Tuesday-Saturday 10 am-4 pm and Sunday 2-4 pm.
